The Daily Courant.

Friday, January 23. 1708.

London, January 23.

'A Printed Journal of what has pass'd at 'the Court of King Charles III in Barcelona, from the 20th of September 'to the 26th of November last inclusive, 'having been communicated to us; 'We shall give in this and to Morrow's Courant, an 'Extract of what is most remarkable in it.

THE 20th of September return'd hither one of his Catholick Majesty's Ships, Captain Levante Commander, and brought in with him a French Ship richly laden, which was taken on the Coast of Denia. Captain Levante was sent from hence with Men and Necessaries for the Garrison of Denia.

The 22d the Conde Monte d' Ozo a Neapolitan arriv'd here on board a Genoese Ship, and had soon after Audience of his Catholick Majesty, to whom he deliver'd a Packet of Letters from that Kingdom.

The 23d the Baron van Wassenaer the Dutch Vice-Admiral arriv'd here with one single Ship, Landed immediately, and had Audience of his Catholick Majesty about some important Affairs.

The 24th the said Vice-Admiral put to Sea agen, to joyn the Confederate Fleet which Sail'd from this Harbour some Days before. In the Afternoon his Majesty diverted himself at the Tennis-Court.

The 25th in the Forenoon his Catholick Majesty perform'd his usual Devotions; and in the Evening a Consort of Vocal and Instrumental Musick was perform'd in his own Chamber.

The 26th and 27th, Advice was brought, that the Enemy's Forces, which were formerly left at Valencia, but advanc'd afterwards to the Neighbourhood of Tortola, had taken their March towards Lerida.

The 1st of October being his Catholick Majesty's Birth-Day, when he enter'd into the 23d Year of his Age, was celebrated with great Magnificence; after the Foreign Ministers had made their Compliments on this Occasion, his Majesty went immediately to hear Divine Service in the Chappel of our blessed Lady. In the Evening there was a numerous Appearance at Court of the Nobility of both Sexes, who had the honour to kiss his Majesty's hand, and were entertain'd with an excellent Consort of Musick.

The 2. being the Festival of Santa Maria de Victoria his Catholick Majesty rode on Horseback to the Church of St. Catherine belongiug to the Dominicans; And in the Evening his Majesty perform'd his Devotions in the Aulick Church, and afterwards near the Pillar of the immaculate Mother of God, call'd al Borno. The same Day Orders were dispatch'd to the Royal Regiment of Dragoons, and a Regiment of Castile, as also to a German Regiment of Foot to march from the Neighbourhood of Gironne and joyn the Forces of the Allies posted near Tarrega.

The 3d, A Privy-Council was held in the Forenoon, but in the Afternoon his Majesty diverted himself at the Tennis-Court; and Men were set to Work in our Arsenal, to prepare some Bridges of Boats, as also some Field-Pieces to be sent to our Army.

The 4th, Being the Festival of St. Franciscus Seraphicus, his Majesty went to the Church of the Franciscans, and in the Evening a Farce was perform'd at Court in presence of the King.

The 5th, His Majesty rode out very early in the Morning, and diverted himself with shooting at Wild-fowl, behind the Mountain Monjouique on the River Lobregad.

The 6th, We had an Account that the Enemy being about 22000 strong, had begun to Batter Lerida from 3 Batteries; but that they were daily annoy'd by the Miquelets and the Militia.

The 7th, A Transport arriv'd here from the Coast of Roussillon, having on board several of our Officers and Soldiers taken Prisoners, in order to be exchang'd for a like number of Prisoners taken by our Men.

The 8th, His Catholick Majesty was imploy'd in writing Letters to Vienna, to hasten the sending of Auxiliary Troops; and a Courier was dispatch'd to Genoa.

The 9th and 10th, A Privy-Council was held for several Hours, and in the Evening his Majesty was present at a Ball at Court.

The 12, His Catholick Majesty perform'd a Tournament; and the Prince of Lichtenstein, Master of the Horse and several other eminent Persons were present there.

The 13th, His Majesty diverted himself with the like Exercise, and afterwards view'd on Horseback the German Regiment of Scobor consisting of 450 Men, who march'd to Tarrega.

The 14th, By break of Day 25 Field-Pieces were sent from our Arsenal to the Camp of the Allies near Tarrega; His Majesty held a Cabinet-Council in the Forenoon, and diverted himself in the Afternoon at the Tennis-Court: Advice came from the Neighhood of Lerida, that the Enemy continue firing upon that Town with such Fury, that they have ruin'd part of the Wall.

The 15th, Being the Festival of the holy Theresia of Jesu, his Catholick Majesty rode in the Forenoon to the Church of the Bare-foot Carmelites.

The 16th, His Catholick Majesty perform'd his Devotions in the Church of our blessed Lady, and was diverted in the Evening with a Consort of Musick; In the Evening arriv'd here from Majorca a Vessel laden with Corn and Oyl. Advice came that Prince Frederick of Hesse-Darmstat Governor of Lerida having repuls'd the Besiegers with great Valour in two Storms they made upon the Place, and not being in a Condition to sustain a 3d Assault, had quitted the Town and retir'd with the Garrison and Artillery into the Royal Castle: The Enemy hereupon took possession of the Town and Plunder'd it, not sparing the Churches and Monasteries there. This Day Count Uhlefelt Field-Marshal, at the instances of the several Courts here, who repose a great Trust in him, was sent from hence with some other Officers to Tarrega, to command the Spanish Forces encamp'd near that Place, and to put the Miquelets and Militia into a defensible Condition.

The 17, A Privy-Council was held in the Forenoon; and a Farce was Acted in the Evening in his Majesty's Presence.

The 18th, in the Morning, his Catholick Majesty diverted himself with shooting Larks behind the Monjouique, return'd hither in the Evening and was Entertain'd with Muſick in his own Chamber. This Day we had Advice that the French at Balager being apprehenſive of a Surprize by our Forces poſted over againſt that Town, quitted the Place, and our Men took Poſſeſſion of it and found there ſome Ammunition, and other Things which the Enemy could not carry off.

The 19, a Privy-Council was held; In the Afternoon his Catholick Majeſty gave Audience to the Foreign Miniſters. The Marquis Lucini arriv'd here from Naples at 10 at Night, being diſpatch'd with the welcome News that Count Taun having Beſieg'd Gaeta about a Month, took that Place by Storm.

The 20th, His Catholick Majeſty perform'd his uſual Devotions, in the Afternoon arriv'd the Imperial Courier with Letters from Vienna and Italy; whereby we had Advice that the Garriſon of Suza had Surrender'd to Prince Eugene and were made Priſoners of War; and that the Succours expected here from Italy would be ſhortly embark'd at Final. This Day we were inform'd by Letters from the P. of Heſſe-Darmſtat, that the Enemy having taken Poſſeſſion of the Town of Lerida ſome few Houſes excepted, open'd Trenches the 14th againſt the Caſtle on the ſide of Arragon and Alla Puerda de Boreros.

The 21ſt, His Catholick Majeſty conſulted how to relieve the Caſtle of Lerida in time; For this End it was Reſolv'd, that the Forces of the Allies being about 12000 Men, ſhould break up in all haſte with the Militia from the Neighbourhood of Tarraga and march towards Lerida, to the End the Enemy might be diſturb'd, the Siege prolong'd, the Caſtle provided with more Troops, and if poſſible, Reliev'd.

The Concluſion of this Journal ſhall be found in our next.
